Bruſſels, February 3.

WE have Advice from Lintz, that the French and Bavarian Garriſons, after having held out a Cannonading and Bombardment of 12 Hours, demanded on the 23d of laſt Month to capitulate, and that the Capitulation was concluded the ſame Day upon the following Conditions, viz. That the two Garriſons might march out with the military Honours; That they ſhould not bear Arms againſt her Hungarian Majeſty for one whole Year; That the French Garriſon ſhould retire to Donawert, and remain there till the Middle of April, in order to return then into France; And laſtly, That the Bavarian Garriſon ſhould remain for the Space of a Year diſtributed thro' the open Country of the Upper Palatinate.

Petersbourg, Jan. 2. Yeſterday being New-Year's-Day, the ſame was celebrated here according to Cuſtom: The Czarina dined on her Throne in the great Hall, and the People of Quality of both Sexes, at figured Tables below. The foreign Miniſters were invited to the Great Chancellor's. In the Evening there were Illuminations all over the Town, and a Ball and Fire-work at Court. The laſt Year ended with an Edict revoking and annulling all Graces granted ſince the Death of her late Majeſty above the Rank of Colonel, with Orders to the reſpective Perſons who had received them, to apply to her preſent Majeſty for their Confirmation, which ſeveral have already done and obtained. Yeſterday, among others, the Chambellans of her late Majeſty were confirmed, and others appointed by the Infant Sovereign, about the Perſon of the Great Dutcheſs, were told that they ſhould be placed in the ſame Quality about the Duke of Holſtein: This Declaration, and Major Korff's having paſſed Berlin in his Way to Kiel, confirm People in their Expectations of ſeeing that Prince here very ſoon. Her Majeſty has appointed the Prince of Heſſe Captain Lieutenant; two of her Chambellans, of which M. Vorantzoff is one, firſt Lieutenants, with the Rank of Lieutenant Generals; two other of her Chambellans ſecond Lieutenants, with the Rank of Major Generals; and Grunſtein, (who was a private Soldier in the Preobrazenki Regiment, and had a great Hand in the Conduct of the late Affair) Enſign, with the Rank of Brigadier. It was thought that this new Company, whoſe Number will be augmented to 360, would have been in Parade, and her Majeſty at the Head of them on Horſeback at the Baptizing of the Waters, which they call here the Jordan, on Twelfth-Day, but they have not been able to find Green Cloth enough of the ſame Colour and Sort to compleat their Uniform.

Berlin, Jan. 19, N. S. Before the King of Pruſſia went from hence, he ſent Orders to M. Schwerin to march with all the Troops he could draw together from Upper Sileſia to take Poſt at Brin.

Copenhagen, Jan. 20, N. S. Baron Korff and M. Tſchernitſchew, who are jointly appointed to tranſact the Affairs of Ruſſia at this Court, had Yeſterday their Audiences together; and having preſented a Letter of Notification and Credence from their new Sovereign to the King of Denmark, were immediately afterwards introduced for the ſame Purpoſe to the Queen. The two Ships bound for China have again ſet Sail, and as the Wind has been favourable, 'tis believed they are both got ſafe through the Categat, the Sleſwick having received no Damage from the Ice.

Dreſden, Jan. 24, N. S. We have an Account from Prague, that a Company of Brewers having been inſulted by the French Soldiers, they ſet down their Casks and fell upon the Frenchmen, of whom ſix were killed in the Fray; and that a Meſſage was afterwards ſent to the Commander in the Name of their whole Body, that unleſs ſuch Inſults were diſcontinued, they would endeavour to free themſelves by Force: In Conſequence of this and other Diſturbances, it has been thought neceſſary to diſarm the Burghers of that Town, and by way of better Precaution againſt a Siege or a Surprize, to keep the Moldaw open by continually cutting the Ice: It is likewiſe ſaid, that at Paſſau the Commander of that Place has diſarmed the Inhabitants.

Hambourg, Jan. 26, N. S. It was reported Yeſterday that the young Duke of Holſtein had paſſed Dantzick, and that the Duke of Brunſwick, with his Dutcheſs and Children, were detained at Narva, by an Order from Petersbourg, till ſuch Time as that Prince ſhould be ſafely arrived in the Ruſſian Dominions.

Hague, Feb. 2. The States General have publiſhed the following Ordonnance for a general Faſt to be obſerved on the 14th of this Month.

WHereas the Almighty, by his adoreable Providence, has delivered this State, from its firſt Eſtabliſhment to this Day, from many Dangers, and has preſerved the ſame in ſuch Manner, that, out of his infinite Goodneſs and Long-ſuffering, it has been maintained in its full Liberty and Religion; as it has continued to enjoy Peace the laſt Year; and as the Inundations, whereof ſuch ſad Effects were felt in ſo many Places, as well as the exceſſive Price of Proviſions, are conſiderably conſiderably diminiſhed, we ſhould be ungrateful, if in all theſe Things we did not acknowledge the Divine Goodneſs. We cannot alſo forbear giving particular Attention to the Troubles lately ariſen in Europe, which have been attended in ſeveral Places with fatal Wars, which occaſion the Subverſion and Ruin of Kingdoms and Provinces, ſo that we have too much ground to fear, that, notwithſtanding our Love for Peace, and our Care for preſerving the ſame, that Scourge ſhould extend it ſelf even to this State. It is for that Reaſon that we have been obliged, out of Precaution, to arm ourſelves more than ordinary, for our Safety and lawful Defence, ſo much the rather, as we obſerve that almoſt all the Powers of Europe have conſiderably augmented their Forces, and that a great Number of Foreign Troops have been poſted near our Frontiers, which cannot but give us ſome Uneaſineſs, being Ignorant of the Judgments of God upon this Land; and having Cauſe to fear, leſt he ſhould withdraw his ſuccouring and merciful Hand, by Reaſon of the Sins and Iniquities which are every Day encreaſing in theſe Countries: In Conſideration of all this, and of the Dangers wherewith this State is threatened, which appear to us greater than ever, we have thought fit to have Recourſe to the Almighty, on whom alone depends the good Succeſs of all our Deliberations and Endeavours for the Good of the Country and of the Church, and whereof we have ſo often and ſo powerfully felt the Relief and Aſſiſtance in Times of Trouble: To this End we have appointed a ſolemn Day of Thankſgiving, Faſting and Prayers in all theſe Provinces, to be celebrated the 14th of February next.

St. James's January 29.

This Day M. Waſenberg, Miniſter from the King of Sweden, had a private Audience of his Majeſty, to deliver his Letters of Credence in that Character; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Kt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.
